The first Golden Tulip Hotel in Nigeria has opened to the public on the site old Festac 77 Durbar hotel in Amuwo Odofin off Festac Town link road, known as Hotel Golden Tulip Festac Lagos, a four-star property located within the Festac area of Lagos.

According to the general Manager of the hotel, Sadiq Kahn, the new hotel is s a member of the Golden Tulip Hospitality Group, "it is situated on a seven hectare site offering a secure and serene environment, in a setting of tropicalised landscaped gardens. Golden Tulip Festac Lagos is only 30 minutes away from Murtala Mohammed International Airport and a 15 minutes drive from the city centre," Mr. Kahn noted.

He said that with 471 exquisitely furnished rooms and suites on eight floors, Golden Tulip Festac Lagos provides the solution to accommodation and conference requirements of prospective guests, adding that all the hotel rooms and suites have Internet connectivity.

"Other facilities include bars with two different styled restaurants offering Mediterranean and local cuisine, 24-hr room service, WI-FI Internet facility in all hotel outlets. The 1000m2 conference centre has ultra modern state-of-the-art equipment and facilities," Kahn added.

The hotel, he disclosed, has seven meeting rooms with various sitting capacities and a business centre.

The leisure and fitness facilities include fully equipped gym with a room for aerobics, a massage room, sauna, steam bath, outdoor adult and children sparkling swimming pool, two floodlit tennis court as well as twin squash courts, in a secured environment.

"Our hotel boasts of a 24-hour police patrol and in-house security presence as well as CCTV cameras."

He said that the Golden Tulip Festac Lagos, above all, derives strength from a sound management team whose motivation, professionalism and spirit of innovation represent her greatest asset when it comes to meeting and exceeding customer expectations.

"Golden Tulip Hospitality Group has more than 780 hotels, with 75,000 rooms in over 50 countries worldwide with its Group head office in Lausanne, Switzerland, offering services in the middle, upper, and luxury scales. It is also a major player in the global travel and tourism industry. The Group is also a benchmark in services for companies and public institutions. Presently Golden Tulip group has hotels spread across countries in Africa," the general manager also disclosed.
